XXIII^d. YEAR.] THE [N^o. 1154.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1767.

LEGHORN, June 27.

ADVICES from Capraia ſay, that the Commiſſary which General Paoli had placed there, was employed in putting that Fortreſs in a more defenſible Condition than it was in whilſt ſubject to the Republic of Genoa, and for that Purpoſe had ordered Two new Forts to be built at the Entrance of the Great Port.

FLORENCE, July 1. They write from Martinico, that on the 5th of laſt Month, in the Morning, the Crew of a Barbary Galliot attempted to make a Deſcent on the Iſland of Pianoſa; but ſeveral People, who were employed in cutting down Timber, made ſo vigorous a Reſiſtance, that the former were obliged to retire. In the Afternoon they returned, on the other Side of the Iſland, and carried away ſix Men.

HAGUE, July 21. The Prince of Orange arrived here on Wedneſday laſt in the Afternoon, in perfect Health. The next Morning he was complimented by Deputations from the States-General, the States of Holland, and the other Colleges, upon the Notification he had given of his Marriage; and the Rejoicings upon the Occaſion continued Two Nights.

LONDON, July 20.

We are informed, that a noble Foreigner, lately arrived here, whoſe Anceſtors were all Natives of Ireland, hath lately ſent Orders to that Kingdom to have a ſtrict Search made to find out his poor Relations, in order to provide for them; he being immenſely rich, and without Iſſue.

July 27. We hear that Twelve Ships of War, of Forty Guns and upwards, are ordered to be repaired and fitted up for Station-Service, the Weſt-India ſtationed Ships being ordered to be relieved in the Beginning of September next at fartheſt, ſeveral of them having been their full Time of Three Years already.

It is thought a Circumſtance well worth Enquiry, to learn how the Bank of Scotland is enabled to divide Six per Cent. whilſt that of England, in all Appearance in the moſt flouriſhing State imaginable, makes a Dividend of only Five.

They write from Rochfort, that Four Thouſand Tons of Naval Stores, Ship Timber, &c. have lately been depoſited in Magazines in the Haven of Palmazey, a few Leagues from Breſt, where ſome Third Rate Men of War are now upon the Stocks.

By a Letter from Cadiz there is Advice, that the Spaniards were ſtrongly fortifying the City and Harbour of Carthagena, by the Addition of ſeveral new Works.

They write from Gibraltar, that Two large Tranſports, laden with Naval Stores, from the Baltick, were juſt arrived there, on their Way to Forhali, on the Gulph of St. Fiorenzo, for the Uſe of the Corſican Fleet.

Auguſt 1. The Viſit of a foreign Princeſs to this Country, is conjectured, by many People, to be of a more important Nature than a Tour of intire Curioſity.

Some Accounts from Leghorn mention, that the Court of Verſailles had demanded a double Subſidy of the Genoeſe Republic, for continuing the French Auxiliary Troops in Corſica, which it was thought the deſperate Situation of their Affairs in that Iſland, together with the late Loſs of Capraia, would oblige them to grant.

By a Letter from Lyons, we are told, that there are no leſs than 1500 Engliſh Weavers at the Looms of that City.

A Corſican Agent, furniſhed with Bills of Exchange to the Amount of One Million of Guilders, was arrived at Amſterdam, when the laſt Letters came away; an extraordinary Reſpect was ſhewn him by the Merchants.

Auguſt 3. It is ſaid that the Freedom of the City of London will, at the next Court of Common Council, be voted to the Marquis of Rockingham.

Auguſt 5. They write from Leghorn, that a Corſican armed Pink having been attacked by Two Barbary Xebecks in the Mediterranean, had ſunk One of them, and obliged her Conſort to take Shelter under the Cannon of a Fort in the Iſland of Scio.

They write from Malaga, the 12th ult. that the Tangier Rowboats had taken and carried in a Dutch Dogger with Corn, from Holland for Genoa, and an Engliſh Ship with Proviſions from Ireland; but that the latter was releaſed.

Auguſt 6. We hear, that during a late Conference between a great Perſonage, juſt arrived from abroad, and another greater at home, the latter had the Condeſcenſion to ſtand the whole Time, out of pure Complaiſance to his Viſitant, who, according to the Rules of Ceremony, could not ſit in his Preſence.

Though no Changes in the Adminiſtration were declared Yeſterday, yet it is currently reported that the following are fixed, and will very ſoon take Place, viz. Lord Egmont, Preſident of the Council, in the room of Lord Northington, who will retire with a Penſion of 2000 l. per Annum. The Right Hon. Mr. Conway to ſucceed Lord Townſhend (who goes to Ireland) as Maſter of the Ordnance, and to continue Secretary of State ſome Time longer. The Earl of Briſtol to be Lord Privy Seal, and Lord Chatham to retire with 3000 l. per Annum, Penſion.

During the late Negotiation for a Change in the Miniſtry, a Worceſter Gentleman, eminent for his Skill in Finance, was ſent for by a noble Marquis to Town; and his Admiſſion made, it is ſaid, one of the indiſpenſible Articles towards forming a new Adminiſtration.

By a Gentleman arrived from France, we hear, that the French are in great Concern, &c. Account of the Shilling in a Pound Duty being taken off of Tea in England.

Auguſt 7. Yeſterday the Duke of Buccleugh was at the Levee, and it is ſaid his Grace was honoured with One of the vacant Green Ribans.

Auguſt 8. The Three vacant Green Ribans, we are informed, are to be given to the Duke of Gordon, the Earl of Strathmore, and the Earl of Carliſle. The Two Firſt, it is ſaid, will be elected Two of the 16 Peers, who repreſent the Scotch Peerage in Parliament.

Wedneſday's Letters from Cornwall ſay, that higher Prices have already been offered to the Electors of the Corniſh Boroughs for Seats in Parliament, at the next General Election, than have been known for near Forty Years paſt.

We hear that his Majeſty has ordered his Picture in Miniature to be ſet in Diamonds, in order to its being preſented to the Count de Guerchy. The Royal Picture is actually in the Hands of one of his Majeſty's Jewellers, to be properly ornamented; and ſo ſoon as finiſhed, will be ſent after the Count to Paris.

The Appointment of Lord Viſcount Townſhend, elder Brother of the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, to the important Poſt of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, is not a temporary Nomination; and it is thought to be a Circumſtance that will prove highly agreeable to the Iriſh in general, his Lordſhip having evinced himſelf, on ſeveral Occaſions, to be an able Stateſman, a good Soldier, a convictive Orator, an excellent Writer, a diſtinguiſhed Patriot, and (of all the moſt valuable) an honeſt Man.

Letters by Yeſterday's French Mail ſay, that Wheat is riſen there from 42 s. to 52 s. our Quarter, and that they have had ſuch heavy Rains, that they were in great Dread of a bad Harveſt, and being in Want of Grain; that the Populace began to be outragious at the Exportation of Corn, inſomuch that no Perſon durſt preſume to ſpeak of exporting any more; the Weather has now changed, and ſeems more favourable, which alleviates their dreadful Apprehenſions of being in the utmoſt Diſtreſs.

The Cargoes of the ſeveral Ships which have arrived in the River within a Fortnight paſt with foreign Corn, amount to 20,300 Quarters of Wheat, beſides a great Quantity of other Grain.

Letters from Vienna adviſe, that there was much Talk there of a Claim ſet up by France on the Empreſs Queen, upon Account of the late War; but that, in order to preſerve the Union that happily ſubſiſts between the Two Powers, an Equivalent had been propoſed, which makes the Subject of a Negotiation now carrying on between thoſe Two Courts.

Some Letters from Liſbon ſay, that there is to be a public Auto de Fe there, ſome Time in September next, when ſome Jeſuits, Priſoners from the Azores, accuſed of Crimes againſt Religion, were expected to undergo the Fate of the late Father Malagrida.

Auguſt 10. Friday, Mr. Secretary Conway was appointed Lieutenant-General of the Ordnance.

Letters received at Liſbon, from the Bay of All-Saints, mention, that Eleven Men of War of the Line, and Nine Frigates, were building, and in ſuch Forwardneſs, that ſome would be ready to ſail for Europe by the Return of the next Flota.

They write from Leghorn, that the Santa Familia, a Genoeſe Settee, has been taken on her Return from Smyrna, with a valuable Cargo, by a Barbary Pirate, and carried into one of the Iſles of the Archipelago.

Auguſt 11. To-morrow being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, who enters into the 5th Year of his Age, the Morning will be uſhered in with ringing of Bells. At Noon the Park and Tower Guns will be fired; and being Levee Day at St. James's, his Majeſty will receive the Compliments of the Nobility, &c. on that Occaſion, as will her Majeſty at her Palace, and her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales at Carleton Houſe; and the Evening will be concluded with a grand Concert at the Queen's Houſe.

The Earl of March and Rugten is to be Vice-Admiral of Scotland, in the room of Lord Hyndford, deceaſed.

Letters from Breſt inform, that Advice had juſt been received, that the Spaniards had forced all the French Inhabitants to quit the City and Iſland of New-Orleans, and even diſcharged all Officers of that Nation from his Catholic Majeſty's Service.

The moſt ſanguine Hopes are now entertained by the Merchants concerned in the Portugal Trade, that Mr. Littleton's Commiſſion to his Moſt Faithful Majeſty, will ſpeedily be attended with many and great Commercial Advantages to the Britiſh Factories at Liſbon and Oporto.

Letters from Genoa adviſe, that the Procedure of the Court of Verſailles, in recalling great Part of their Auxiliary Troops from Corſica, had ſtruck the Senate with great Conſternation, and they had reſolved to ſend over General Matra with a Body of Republican Troops to occupy their Place.

Yeſterday the Price of Wheat fell Two Shillings per Quarter in Mark-Lane.

Auguſt 13. Tueſday Evening arrived in Dover-Street, his Excellency the Earl of Rochfort, from Paris; and Yeſterday his Lordſhip waited upon his Majeſty at St. James's, and was graciouſly received.

Auguſt 14. Yeſterday Lady Dalkeith, Lady of the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, on being created a Peereſs in her own Right, by the Title of Counteſs of Greenwich.

Yeſterday Lord Collooney kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, on being created Earl Belmont, of the Kingdom of Ireland.

The ſame Day Conſtantine Phipps, Eſq; kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, on being appointed an Iriſh Peer, by the Title of Baron Mulgrave.

They write from Cadiz, that the Sovereign, a new Spaniſh Man of War, of Seventy-four Guns, was launched there the Middle of July laſt.

Extract of a Letter from Lyons, July 20.

"A Trial of a moſt horrid Nature will come on here ſoon. A very beautiful Girl, born of honeſt, though poor Parents, became the Object of the Criminal Deſires of Three young Gentlemen. Each of them tried ſeparately to ſeduce her, but without Succeſs: The better to accompliſh their Purpoſe, they united, and employed an intriguing Woman to aſſiſt them. This Woman knew ſhe could do nothing without laying ſome Snare for the Innocence of the Girl: She found Pretence to get her into her Clutches, and gave the Three Libertines immediate Notice of it. They loſt no Time in joining her, and forcibly and violently obtained what they could no other Way have poſſibly accompliſhed. The Dread of Puniſhment ſoon ſeized them, and, after ſome Deliberation, they reſolved to diſpatch the unhappy Girl. They cut her in Pieces, and threw them into the Rhone, thinking there alſo, to bury their Crime. Some Days paſſed without the Father and Mother being able to diſcover what was become of their Daughter; but the River having ſucceſſively thrown up the Limbs of the mutilated Body, it was concluded the Girl had been murdered. Upon ſome Information it appeared that ſhe had been with the abovementioned Woman, who was immediately arreſted, and being interrogated, ſhe confeſſed the Deed and diſcovered her Accomplices."

Extract of a Letter from Calais, Auguſt 6.

"His Excellency the Earl of Rochfort, who left Compeigne on Sunday laſt, in order to go over to England for a few Days, on his own private Affairs, has, nevertheleſs, been ſo vigilant as to take Dunkirk on his Way, and Yeſterday his Lordſhip truſted to his own Eyes, inſtead of the Reports of others, how Matters ſtand at that Sea-Port."

EDINBURGH, July 24. This Day the Printers of the News-Papers and Scotch Magazines in this City, were brought to the Bar of the Right Hon. the Lords of Council and Seſſion, for inſerting in their News-Papers and Magazines, Extracts from DORANDO, a Spaniſh Tale, with other Letters and Eſſays: When their Lordſhips, after a full and mature Conſideration of this very important and intereſting Queſtion, were pleaſed to diſmiſs them from the Bar, with a genteel Reprimand, pronounced with great Dignity by the Lord Preſident himſelf.

NEW-LONDON, October 2.

Yeſterday arrived here, in 17 Days, from Monto Chriſto, the Brig Two Brothers, Capt. Waterman, belonging to Norwich. He informs that a Schooner ſailed from the Mount a few Days before him, with 25 Soldiers on board; who, as it was reported, was gone to take Poſſeſſion of Turk's-Iſland for the Crown of Spain, having, it was said, a Commission for that Purpose.

NEW-YORK, October 12.

We hear JOSEPH READ, Esq; is appointed Deputy Secretary, Clerk of the Council, Clerk of the Supreme Court, Surrogate-General and Register of the Province of New-Jersey.

There was no Packet for America at Falmouth, when Captain Goddard sailed from thence, so that in all Probability it will be a considerable Time before any arrives here from England.

PHILADELPHIA, October 15.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated August 6.

"The general Affairs of America here, bear a very disagreeable Aspect; the present Ministry are like to continue some Time longer—some particular Changes will happen, and I fear the principal Structure will not be of long Duration, but probably there will be another Session of Parliament before a considerable Alteration is made.—The Opposition to America seems to increase. Every Step is taken to render the Taxation of the Colonies a popular Measure, and it is contended that they should be obliged explicitly to acknowledge that Right. I know not what to advise on this Occasion, but that the Friends of America, on both Sides the Water, should exert their utmost Endeavours to lessen the present Unpopularity of the American Cause, conciliate the Affections of the People here towards you, increase by all possible Means the Number of your Friends, and be careful not to weaken their Hands, and strengthen those of your Enemies, by rash Proceedings, the Mischiefs of which are inconceivable."

Extract of another Letter from London, dated August 7.

"A late Attempt to coalesce the different Parties in a new Ministry, has proved ineffectual—and it seems probable, that the present Set will continue some time longer—This seems not unfortunate for America, as some who were proposed to come in, are their professed Adversaries.—The prevailing Distinction of Parties here, is, those who in the Two last Sessions of Parliament, have been disposed to favour America, are called by their Opponents (by way of Reproach) AMERICANS! while the Adherents to G——le and B——d, boast of their being true to the Interest of Britain, and zealous for maintaining its Sovereignty over the Colonies—This Declaration seems every Day to be more and more fixt; and it is much to be feared will be carried higher in the next Session of Parliament, for the political Purposes of influencing the ensuing Election.—It is already said, that the Act for Quartering the Soldiers at New-York, without taking Notice of its being done in Obedience to the Act of Parliament, is evasive, and unsatisfactory; that it is high Time to put the Right of taxing America out of Dispute, by an Act of Taxation, effectually carried into Execution, &c. &c."

Our other Advices, by the Packet, in general, are, that the Gentlemen in the Opposition to the present Ministry, have had several Meetings relating to the Arrangement of a new Administration: That the Dukes of Bedford and Newcastle, Lord Temple, and Mr. Grenville, had declared they wanted no Places for themselves, but hoped their Friends would not be forgot; That Mr. Grenville had promised to support the new Administration, provided the Dependance of the Colonies was asserted and maintained: That Lord Rockingham was proposed to be at the Head of the Treasury, and Mr. Dowdeswell Chancellor of the Exchequer, which was agreed to; but that some of the Company being for the continuing Mr. Conway Secretary of State, and others against it, these Meetings broke up, without concluding any Thing.

By Captain Faris, in 6 Weeks from Madeira, we learn, that the English Merchants there were shipping off their Effects, on Account of the Disputes between Portugal. On the 30th of August, in Lat. 31:20, Long. 23:10, he was chased for 12 Hours by a Salletine Snow, who both rowed and sailed, but could not come up with him, tho' they fired several Shot at him to bring him too.---On the 28th ult. in Lat. 35, Long. 65:30, he spoke a Schooner from Plymouth for Dominica, out 7 Days, all well.

On Tuesday last the following Horses started for the Gentleman's Subscription Purse of One Hundred Guineas,

Samuel Galloway, Esqr's bay Horse Selim,	1	1
Mr. Leary's bay Horse Old England,	2	dist.
Mr. Samuel's bay Horse Granby,	3	dr.
Mr. Andrew Orr's grey Horse Northumberland,	dist.

The First Heat was run in 8 Minutes and 2 Seconds, Selim winning from Old England by a single Length. The Second Heat, after running Three Miles close at the Heels of Selim, Old England flew the Course.
